HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, AND TOURISM; DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES; AND UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII ECONOMIC RESEARCH ORGANIZATION, TO CONDUCT A FEASIBILITY STUDY ON ESTABLISHING A GUARANTEED UNIVERSAL BASIC INCOME PROGRAM FOR WORKING FAMILIES IN HAWAII.

1           WHEREAS, Hawaii consistently ranks among the most expensive
2 states in the nation, with high costs associated with housing,
3 food, childcare, transportation, and other basic necessities;
4 and

5
6           WHEREAS, many working families in Hawaii continue to 7 experience financial insecurity despite maintaining employment, 8 as wages have not kept pace with the rising cost of living; and 9

10           WHEREAS, many residents work multiple jobs or extended 11 hours yet still struggle to afford basic necessities, reflecting 12 the widening gap between wages and the cost of living in Hawaii; 13 and

15           WHEREAS, in 2017, the Legislature adopted House Concurrent
16 Resolution No. 89, which established the Basic Economic Security
17 Working Group (Working Group) to examine policies that could 18 provide greater economic security for residents, including 19 universal basic income concepts; and 20

21           WHEREAS, the Working Group was tasked with studying the 22 potential impacts of automation on jobs, reviewing the State's 23 social safety net, and evaluating strategies that could 24 strengthen economic security for Hawaii residents; and 25

26           WHEREAS, although the Working Group helped elevate
27 discussion of universal basic income and economic security

1 policies, this did not result in the implementation of a
2 statewide pilot program or a comprehensive feasibility study;
3 and
4

5 WHEREAS, since that time, guaranteed income pilot programs
6 implemented in several cities across the United States have 7 demonstrated potential benefits, including improved financial 8 stability, reduced stress, and increased ability for families to 9 meet essential needs; and 10

11 WHEREAS, Hawaii's unique economic conditions, including its 12 high cost of living and geographic isolation, make it important 13 to continue exploring innovative solutions that support economic 14 security for working families; now, therefore,
15

16 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 17 Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
18 of 2026, the Senate concurring, that the Legislative Reference
19 Bureau, in consultation with the Department of Business,
20 Economic Development, and Tourism; Department of Human Services; 21 and University of Hawaii Economic Research Organization, is 22 requested to conduct a feasibility study on establishing a
23 guaranteed universal basic income program for working families
24 in Hawaii; and 25

26 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Reference
27 Bureau is requested to include the following in the feasibility
28 study:
29

- 30 (1) Potential program structures and eligibility criteria
31 for working families;
32
- 33 (2) Estimated program costs and possible funding sources;
34
- 35 (3) Potential impacts on poverty reduction, economic 36 stability, and workforce participation;
37
- 38 (4) Lessons learned from guaranteed income pilot programs
39 implemented in other states and municipalities; and 40

H.C.R. NO. 184

1 (5) The feasibility of implementing a pilot program in
2 Hawaii to evaluate the effectiveness of guaranteed
3 income; and
4

5 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Reference
6 Bureau is requested to submit a report of its findings and 7 recommendations, including any proposed legislation, to the 8 Legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of 9 the Regular Session of 2027; and 10

11 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 12 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Director of the 13 Legislative Reference Bureau; Director of Business, Economic 14 Development, and Tourism; Director of Human Services; and 15 Executive Director of the University of Hawaii Economic Research
16 Organization.
