NO. 25-06.

1 WHEREAS, the Department of Transportation is responsible
2 for establishing and certifying a statewide Driver Education
3 Program, including program curricula and certification of driver

5
6 WHEREAS, H.C.R. No. 125, Regular Session of 2022, requested
7 the Auditor to conduct a performance audit of the Driver

9 Transportation and Education; and

10
11 WHEREAS, the Auditor completed this review in Report No.

22 instructor certification and renewal processes, and requirements
23 that exceeded the Department's legal authority; and

24
25 WHEREAS, the Auditor recommended that the Department of 26 Transportation immediately establish required curriculum task
27 forces, certify the required curricula, and develop and document 28 policies and procedures consistent with its statutory and 29 administrative rule authority; and

30

H.R. NO. 63

1 WHEREAS, the Auditor indicated that portions of the 2 Department of Transportation's administrative rules governing
3 the Driver Education Program may be outdated or unclear,
4 contributing to confusion and inconsistencies in program
5 administration and access statewide; now, therefore,
6

7 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 8 Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
9 of 2026, that the Department of Transportation is requested to
