A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO REVOLVING DOOR RESTRICTIONS FOR STATE EMPLOYEES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that public confidence in
2 state government depends upon the assurance that all state
3 employees make decisions solely in the interest of the public.
4 While Hawaii law restricts post-employment activities of state
5 officials, there is no parallel restriction addressing new state
6 employees who previously worked on matters for private
7 businesses or sources. Establishing a two-year cooling-off
8 period for new state employees will prevent actual or perceived
9 favoritism and strengthen public trust.

10 The legislature further finds that establishing a
11 "cooling-off" period will help prevent even the appearance that 12 a newly hired state employee might favor their former private
13 employer in performing their official duties. This restriction
14 is a narrowly tailored measure to protect the integrity of 15 government decision-making and to enhance public trust.

16 The purpose of this Act is to prohibit new state employees
17 from taking official action on matters they previously worked on

1 during private sector employment. This Act also extends the
2 lobbying restrictions in the post-employment law, section 84-18,
3 Hawaii Revised Statutes, to include employees in the offices of 4 the governor and the lieutenant governor.

5 SECTION 2. Chapter 84, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended
6 by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to 7 read as follows:

8 §84- Restrictions on matters involving pre-employment.

9 (a) For two years after becoming an employee, an employee shall 10 not take official action on any matter in which the employee,
11 within the five years preceding becoming an employee:

12 (1) Received compensation from a private source; and 13 (2) Personally and substantially participated.

14 (b) This section shall not apply to any employee who takes 15 official action:

16 (1) Required by law, court order, or similar legal 17 authority; or
18 (2) Within the scope of membership in a task force or 19 working group.

20 (c) For purposes of this section, "matter" means a
21 specific bill, contract, claim, application, investigation,

1 proceeding, dispute, or other transaction or proposal involving
2 a particular party or parties and does not include general
3 subject areas."

4 SECTION 3. Section 84-18, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
5 amended by amending subsection (e) to read as follows:

6 "(e) Subject to the restrictions imposed in subsections
7 (a) through (d), the following individuals shall not represent
8 any person or business for a fee or other consideration
9 regarding any legislative action or administrative action, as 10 defined in section 97-1, for twelve months after termination
11 from their respective positions:

- 12 (1) The governor;
- 13 (2) The lieutenant governor;
- 14 (3) The administrative director of the State;

1 (38) The executive officer of the state land use
2 commission;

3 (39) The executive director of the natural energy
4 laboratory of Hawaii authority;

5 (40) The executive director of the Hawaii public housing
6 authority; [and]

7 (41) The first deputy to the chairperson of the commission
8 on water resource management; and

9 (42) The permanent employees of the offices of the governor
0 and the lieutenant governor, other than persons
1 employed in clerical, secretarial, or similar
2 positions;

3 provided that this subsection shall not apply to any person who
4 has held one of the positions listed above only on an interim or 5 acting basis and for a period of less than one hundred
6 eighty-one days."

17 SECTION 4. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 18 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 19 begun before its effective date.

20 SECTION 5. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
21 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.
