A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO TAXATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the majority of 2 income received from real estate investment trusts by corporate
3 entities doing business in Hawaii is not taxed at the state
4 level. They enjoy a preference that exempts them from paying 5 taxes on dividends paid on revenues generated in Hawaii.
6 According to the department of taxation, the estimated amount of 7 income tax revenues that will be foregone in the 2026 taxable
8 year may be as much as $26,800,000.

9           The legislature also finds that, in September 2016, the 10 department of business, economic development, and tourism,
11 through its research and economic analysis division,
12 commissioned a report to evaluate the recovery of income tax
13 revenues from real estate investment trusts within the State.
14 The findings revealed that Hawaii received only $954,842 from 15 in-state residents paying taxes on dividend income associated 16 with Hawaii real estate investment trusts. In contrast, the 17 majority of the real estate investment trust income taxes were

1 paid to other states by out-of-state shareholders receiving 2 dividends, meaning that Hawaii did not benefit from the bulk of 3 the income generated by real estate investment trusts operating 4 within its borders. The legislature further finds that real 5 estate investment trust income generated through the use of 6 state resources should be taxed in Hawaii to benefit the State.

7 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to disallow the 8 dividends paid deduction for most real estate investment trusts.

9 SECTION 2. Section 235-2.3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 10 amended by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

11 "(b) The following Internal Revenue Code subchapters, 12 parts of subchapters, sections, subsections, and parts of
