A G E N D A

On July 3, 2025, the Act 292 (SLH2025) Restrictive Housing Legislative Working Group was established and enacted into law to develop and recommend more comprehensive laws, policies, and procedures regarding restrictive housing for members of vulnerable populations incarcerated within Hawai'i's jails and prisons.

The Act 292 Working Group is tasked with reviewing, considering, and identifying laws, policies, and procedures regarding restrictive housing for persons who: (a) are sixty years of age or older; (b) have a physical or mental disability, a history of psychiatric hospitalization, or recently exhibited conduct, including serious self-mutilation, that indicates the need for further observation or evaluation to determine the presence of mental illness; (c) have a developmental disability, as defined in HRS Section 333F-1; (d) have a serious mental condition that cannot be effectively treated while the committed person is in restrictive housing; (e) have a significant auditory or visual impairment; or (f) is perceived to be lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, or intersex. Act 292 directs the Working Group to submit its recommendations to the Legislature by January 8, 2027.
