

Linda Y. Wong

Linda Wong has played an active role in both City and State Governments over the years, as well as being involved with several non-profit organizations in Hawaii. She served as Chief of Staff for 10 years to former Mayor Frank F. Fasi. Prior to that, she held appointed positions in the State House of Representatives, the State Senate, and Office of the Lt. Governor.

Linda was honored by the City and County of Honolulu with the Oihana Maika'I Award for career achievement and service to the community.

Linda Wong is President and CEO of World of Aloha, which oversees the preservation of the 42 acre Kahaluu Fishpond which is on the State and Federal Registers of Historic Sites. 25 years ago, she and Danny Kaleikini developed the Aloha Ke Akua Wedding Chapel dedicated to the late Reverend Abraham Akaka. As a result of her involvement in the Japanese Wedding market, Linda was appointed as one of two public members to sit on the HTA board in 2015.

It would be an honor to become a member of the Hawaii Tourism Advisory Board.
