

ACT 147

An Act Relating to Vacations of Public Officers and Employees.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. The first paragraph of section 5-30 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 5-30. Vacations of public officers and employees; exceptions. With the exception of school teachers, principals and cafeteria managers employed in the public schools of the State, the instructional staff of the University of Hawaii, members of the fire departments of the several counties, and provisional employees and contractual employees (meaning persons employed on a contractual basis pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (n) of section 3-20; paragraphs (g) and (i) of section 3-51; and paragraphs (g) and (l) of section 3-61) of the State and the several counties, all officers and employees of the State or of the several counties and all full-time elected and appointive officers and employees of the State and the several counties shall be entitled to and granted a vacation with pay each calendar year calculated at the rate of one and three-quarters working days for each month of service. A month of service shall be deemed to mean a calendar month in which the employee performs not less than nineteen days of actual service. A provisional employee, as such, shall not be entitled to a vacation with pay, but he shall be entitled to earn and accrue vacation allowances during the term of his provisional appointment, and if upon the termination of his provisional appointment he receives a probationary or limited term or permanent appointment in the same position, he shall be credited with the allowances earned and accrued during the provisional appointment, but if he does not become such probationary or regular employee, the vacation allowances shall be automatically forfeited. Vacation allowances shall be recorded and administered on a calendar year basis, the allowance accruing during each calendar year being credited to employees as of December 31 of each year.”

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
