

SECTION 1. Section 103-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§103-3 Employment of attorneys. No department of the State other than the attorney general, shall make any expenditure of public funds for the employment or retention by contract or otherwise of any attorney for the purpose of representing the State or such department in any litigation, rendering legal counsel to the department, or drafting legal documents for the department; provided that the foregoing provision shall not apply:

- (1) To the Hawaii housing authority or the public utilities commission;
 - (2) To any court or judicial or legislative officer of the State;
 - (3) To the legislative reference bureau;
 - (4) To such compilation commission as may be constituted from time to time;
 - (5) To the real estate commission in any action involving the real estate recovery fund;
 - (6) To the Hawaii crime commission;
 - (7) To the grand jury counsel;
 - (8) The office of Hawaiian affairs;
 - (9) To the department of regulatory agencies; provided that such attorney shall be responsible for the prosecution of consumer complaints.
- [(9)] (10) In the event of the attorney general, for reasons deemed by him good and sufficient, declines such representation or counsel, or approves such department's expenditures; provided the governor thereupon waives the provision of this section.

For the purpose of this section the term "department of the State" means any department, board, commission, agency, bureau, or officer of the State.

Every attorney employed by any department on a full-time basis, except an attorney employed by the Hawaii crime commission or as a grand jury counsel, or the department of regulatory agencies in prosecution of consumer complaints, shall become a deputy attorney general."

SECTION 2. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New material is underscored.

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
