

ACT 271

H.B. NO. 1156

A Bill for an Act Relating to the State Fire Council.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 132-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“§132-16 State fire council; composition; functions. (a) There is established a state fire council which shall be placed within the department of labor and industrial relations for administrative purposes. The state fire council shall consist of the fire chiefs of the counties [and the chief of the fire prevention bureau of the city and county of Honolulu shall be ex officio members]. The state fire council [shall] may appoint an advisory committee to assist it in carrying out its functions under this chapter. The advisory committee [shall] may include the heads of the various county building departments, a licensed architect recommended by the Hawaii Society of the American Institute of Architects, a licensed electrical engineer and a licensed mechanical engineer recommended by the Consulting Engineers Council of Hawaii, a representative of the Hawaii Rating Bureau, a representative of the Hawaii firefighters association, and such other members of the public as the state fire council may determine can best assist it. The state fire council shall elect a chairman from among its members.

(b) In addition to adopting a state model fire code pursuant to section 132-3, the state fire council shall serve as a focal point through which all applications to the federal government for federal grant assistance for fire-related projects shall be made. The state fire council may advise and assist the county fire departments where appropriate, may prescribe standard procedures and forms relating to inspections, investigations, and reporting of fires, may approve plans for cooperation among the county fire departments, and may advise the governor and the legislature with respect to fire prevention and protection, life safety, and any other functions or activities for which the various county fire departments are generally responsible."

SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $64,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 1987-1988, for the operating expenses of the state fire council. The sum appropriated shall be expended by the department of labor and industrial relations for the purposes of this Act.

SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

(Approved June 24, 1987.)
