

ACT 210

H.B. NO. 2613

A Bill for an Act Relating to the Use of Force.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 703-309, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“§703-309 Use of force by persons with special responsibility for care, discipline, or safety of others. The use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable under the following circumstances:

- (1) The actor is the parent or guardian or other person similarly responsible for the general care and supervision of a minor, or a person acting at the request of [such] the parent, guardian, or other responsible person, and:
  - (a) The force is [used for] employed with due regard for the age and size of the minor and is reasonably related to the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the minor, including the prevention or punishment of [his] the minor’s misconduct; and
  - (b) The force used is not designed to cause or known to create a [substantial] risk of causing [death, serious] substantial bodily injury, disfigurement, extreme pain or mental distress, or [gross degradation.] neurological damage.
- (2) The actor is a teacher or a person otherwise entrusted with the care or supervision for a special purpose of a minor, and:
  - (a) The actor believes that the force used is necessary to further [such] that special purpose, including maintenance of reasonable discipline in a school, class, or other group, and that the use of [such] force is consistent with the welfare of the [minors;] minor; and

- (b) The degree of force, if it had been used by the parent or guardian of the minor, would not be unjustifiable under [subsection] paragraph (1)(b) [of this section].
- (3) The actor is the guardian or other person similarly responsible for the general care and supervision of an incompetent person, and:
  - (a) The force is [used for] employed with due regard for the age and size of the incompetent person and is reasonably related to the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the incompetent person, including the prevention of [his] the incompetent person's misconduct, or, when such incompetent person is in a hospital or other institution for [his] the incompetent person's care and custody, for the maintenance of reasonable discipline in [such] the institution; and
  - (b) The force used is not designed to cause or known to create a [substantial] risk of causing [death, serious] substantial bodily injury, disfigurement, extreme [or unnecessary] pain[,] or mental distress, or [humiliation.] neurological damage.
- (4) The actor is a doctor or other therapist or a person assisting [him] the doctor or therapist at [his] the doctor's or therapist's direction, and:
  - (a) The force is used for the purpose of administering a recognized form of treatment which the actor believes to be adapted to promoting the physical or mental health of the patient; and
  - (b) The treatment is administered with the consent of the patient, or, if the patient is a minor or an incompetent person, with the consent of [his] the minor's or incompetent person's parent or guardian or other person legally competent to consent in [his] the minor's or incompetent person's behalf, or the treatment is administered in an emergency when the actor believes that no one competent to consent can be consulted and that a reasonable person, wishing to safeguard the welfare of the patient, would consent.
- (5) The actor is a warden or other authorized official of a correctional institution, and:
  - (a) [He] The actor believes that the force used is necessary for the purpose of enforcing the lawful rules or procedures of the institution; and
  - (b) The nature or degree of force used is not forbidden by other provisions of the law governing the conduct of correctional institutions; and
  - (c) If deadly force is used, its use is otherwise justifiable under this chapter.
- (6) The actor is a person responsible for the safety of a vessel or an aircraft or a person acting at [his] the direction of the person responsible for the safety of a vessel or an aircraft, and:
  - (a) [He] The actor believes that the force used is necessary to prevent interference with the operation of the vessel or aircraft or obstruction of the execution of a lawful order, unless [his] the actor's belief in the lawfulness of the order is erroneous and [his] the actor's error is due to ignorance or mistake as to the law defining authority; and
  - (b) If deadly force is used, its use is otherwise justifiable under this chapter.

ACT 210

- (7) The actor is a person who is authorized or required by law to maintain order or decorum in a vehicle, train, or other carrier, or in a place where others are assembled, and:
- (a) [He] The actor believes that the force used is necessary for [such] that purpose; and
  - (b) The force used is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death, bodily injury or extreme mental distress.”

SECTION 2. This Act does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were begun, before its effective date.

SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
