

ACT 261

H.B. NO. 3332

A Bill for an Act Relating to the Dispersal Review Council.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Chapter 321E, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is repealed.

SECTION 2. All officers and employees whose functions are repealed by this Act shall be transferred to the state health planning and development agency.

No officer or employee of the State having tenure shall suffer any loss of salary, seniority, prior service credit, vacation, sick leave, or other employee benefit or privilege as a consequence of this Act, and such officer or employee may be transferred or appointed to a civil service position without the necessity of examination; provided that the officer or employee possesses the minimum qualifications for the position to which transferred or appointed; and provided that subsequent changes in status may be made pursuant to applicable civil service and compensation laws.

An officer or employee of the State who does not have tenure and who may be transferred or appointed to a civil service position as a consequence of this Act shall become a civil service employee without the loss of salary, seniority, prior service credit, vacation, sick leave, or other employee benefits or privileges and without the necessity of examination; provided that such officer or employee possesses the minimum qualifications for the position to which transferred or appointed.

If an office or position held by an officer or employee having tenure is abolished, the officer or employee shall not thereby be separated from public employment, but shall remain in the employment of the State with the same pay and classification and shall be transferred to some other office or position for which the officer or employee is eligible under the personnel laws of the State as determined by the head of the department or the governor.

All appropriations, records, equipment, machines, files, supplies, contracts, books, papers, documents, maps, and other personal property heretofore made, used, acquired, or held by the dispersal review council shall be transferred to the state health planning and development agency.

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 1992.

(Approved June 18, 1992.)
