

ACT 94

H.B. NO. 2485

A Bill for an Act Relating to Exemptions for Psychologist Licensure.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 465-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

“(a) This chapter shall not apply to:

- (1) Any person teaching, lecturing, consulting, or engaging in research in psychology insofar as the activities are performed as part of or are dependent upon employment in a college or university; provided that the person shall not engage in the practice of psychology outside the responsibilities of the person’s employment;
- (2) Any person who performs any, or any combination of the professional services defined as the practice of psychology under the direction of a licensed psychologist in accordance with rules adopted by the board; provided that the person may use the term “psychological assistant”, but shall not identify the person’s self as a psychologist or imply that the person is licensed to practice psychology;
- (3) Any person employed by a local, state, or federal government agency in a school psychologist or psychological examiner position, or a position that does not involve diagnostic or treatment services, but only at those times when that person is carrying out the functions of such government employment;
- (4) Any person who is a student of psychology, a psychological intern, or a resident in psychology preparing for the profession of psychology under supervision in a training institution or facility and who is designated by a title as “psychology trainee”, “psychology student”, “psychology intern”, or “psychology resident”, that indicates the person’s training status; provided that the person shall not identify the person’s self as a psychologist or imply that the person is licensed to practice psychology;
- (5) Any person who is a member of another profession licensed under the laws of this jurisdiction to render or advertise services, including psychotherapy, within the scope of practice as defined in the statutes or rules regulating the person’s professional practice; provided that, notwithstanding section 465-1, the person does not represent the person’s self to be a psychologist or does not represent that the person is licensed to practice psychology[, as defined in this chapter];
- (6) Any person who is a member of a mental health profession not requiring licensure; provided that the person functions only within the person’s professional capacities; and provided further that the person does not represent the person to be a psychologist, or the person’s services as psychological; or
- (7) Any person who is a duly recognized member of the clergy; provided that the person functions only within the person’s capacities as a member of the clergy; and provided further that the person does not represent the person to be a psychologist, or the person’s services as psychological.”

SECTION 2. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New statutory material is underscored.

ACT 94

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
